Lennon B. Haas represents public and private companies in complex commercial litigation and business disputes in state and federal court. He has experience representing clients facing a diverse array of litigation matters, including business interference torts, fraud, and highly complex contract disputes involving patents, merger and asset purchase agreements, and healthcare IT services. He also has experience litigating employment disputes, False Claims Act cases, and constitutional torts.

Lennon has represented mortgage servicing companies, title lenders, and other financial services firms facing Truth in Lending, Fair Debt Collection, Fair Credit Reporting, and RESPA claims in federal court. He also provides regulatory advice for financial services firms being investigated by the Consumer Financial Protection Bureau (CFPB).
